ALEXIS VENECHANOS

HEAD COACH | 1ST SEASON | MARYLAND '03

Alexis Venechanos was named the head coach of the Ohio State women's lacrosse program July 1, 2010, after spending four years as the head coach at Massachusetts following a three-year stint as assistant coach Northwestern and a successful playing career at Maryland.

"The Ohio State University has a phenomenal reputation both academically and athletically and I am honored to be named its next women's lacrosse coach," Venechanos said upon her hiring. "I look forward to aiding in the tradition of success for these student-athletes on and off the field and taking this next step in my professional career with the Buckeye family."

A winner on every level, Venechanos (pronounced: ven-eh-CHAN-ohs) has been a part of four NCAA titles (as a player and coach) and a total of eight conference championships. She replaced Sue Stimmel, who resigned from her position in May as the only previous head coach in Buckeye program history.

"We are pleased to welcome Alexis into the Ohio State family as the next head coach of our women's lacrosse program," Smith said. "She has been successful at every level of her career and has demonstrated her ability to help a program reach its full potential, while developing student-athletes as both players and people."

Venechanos inherited a UMass program in August 2006 that had not been to the NCAA tournament in over 20 years and within three seasons, took the Minutewomen back to the postseason for the first time in a quarter century. They went on to make a second-consecutive NCAA trip in 2010, punctuating a career already marked by a pair of Atlantic 10 championship tournament titles (2009, 2010), an Atlantic 10 regular-season title (2009) and three appearances in the A-10 Tournament championship game.

In all, Venechanos registered an overall record of 36-38, including double-digit wins in each of the last two years, an Atlantic 10 regular-season record of 18-10 and an A-10 tournament record of 5-1.

Prior to taking over the program at UMass, Venechanos served as the first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Northwestern for the 2004-06 seasons, helping the Wildcats to the first two of five-consecutive national championships. They posted a 56-4 record during that span, winning 93 percent of their games, including a 41-1 record in her last two years.

Venechanos primarily mentored the goalies and defense at Northwestern, placing the defensive unit among the nation's best. In her final season in 2006, the Wildcats led the nation in scoring margin and were in the Top 5 in scoring defense, all with a rookie goalie. In the undefeated season of 2005, Venechanos tutored NU goalkeeper Ashley Gersuk as she posted the NCAA-best GAA and earned ALC Goalie of the Year honors, while helping the team become the top scoring defense and hold the largest scoring margin in the nation.

As a player, Venechanos was an All-America goalie at the University of Maryland, the winningest women's lacrosse program of all-time, where she captured two national championships in 2000 and 2001. The Terps went 73-15, an 83 percent win mark, during her four seasons in College Park, including a 23-0 mark in 2001, Venechanos' first as starting goalie.

As a senior captain in 2003, Venechanos was the recipient of the Ensign C. Markland Kelly Award, given to the nation's top goalkeeper. She also was a consensus first team All-American, as well as first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and ACC Tournament MVP. Despite playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL, Venechanos posted 164 saves vs. 121 goals allowed and was in the Top 10 nationally in both save percentage (.575) and goals-against average (6.62).

The 29-year old Venechanos (born Feb. 23, 1981) is a native of Yorktown, N.Y. where she was a three-sport athlete at Yorktown High School in lacrosse, basketball and soccer. She holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Maryland.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ...

"I am very excited for Alexis to have the opportunity to be a head coach at a great place like Ohio State University. She has had a lot of success as an assistant coach at Northwestern and a head coach at Massachusetts and she was a great player for us at the University of Maryland. This is a great pick by Ohio State and she will be a great head coach."

Cindy Timchal,
Navy head coach (former Maryland head coach)

"It was my pleasure to work with Alexis Venechanos during her time at Northwestern. Alexis is a proven coaching talent and she will bring great vision to the Ohio State women's lacrosse program. It is an honor to have her join our conference."

Kelly Amonte-Hiller,
Northwestern head coach

"Alexis Venechanos is a proven winner, a great motivator and has great character. She knows what it takes to be the best and I know that she is going to do great things at Ohio State."

- Angela McMahon,
UMass head coach (former UMass assistant coach)

"Our team is very excited about having Alexis Venechanos as our new head coach. We know she will be a great asset to our team and that she has the ability to build the program into a successful one. We are enthusiastic about the 2010-11 campaign and many seasons to come."

- Gabby Capuzzi,
junior captain

"Alexis did a great job in her four years as the head coach at UMass. She has positioned us for success in the future coming off back-to-back conference championships. We wish her well at Ohio State."

John McCutcheon,
UMass athletic director

AMERICAN LACROSSE CONFERENCE

The American Lacrosse Conference alliance was established in 2002 to give independent lacrosse schools the opportunity to play for automatic qualification into the NCAA Tournament. During the eight seasons since its inception, the ALC has become one of the premier players on the national lacrosse scene.

Ohio State was one of the ALC's charter members when the league began play in 2003. Other longtime members include some of the nation's elite in women's collegiate lacrosse: Northwestern, Johns Hopkins, Vanderbilt and Penn State.

Joining the league for competition in 2010 will be Florida out of the Southeastern Conference; South Carolina also has future plans to join the ALC. Davidson (last season 2005) and Ohio University (last season 2006) were also charter members of the ALC.

Two ALC teams, including five-time national champion Northwestern, were part of the NCAA Tournament 16-team field last season. Since 2003, 15 ALC teams have been selected for the NCAA field.

2010 SEASON IN REVIEW

The Ohio State women's lacrosse team wrapped up the 2010 season with a 9-8 overall record and a 1-4 mark in the American Lacrosse Conference. The Buckeyes were powered by one of the most successful scoring tandems in the NCAA in Kelly Haggerty and Alayna Markwordt. The pair combined for 150 points, the sixth-most of any point-scoring duo in the nation.

In addition, Haggerty wrapped up her career as one of the most prolific scorers in program history with the all-time records for career points and goals at Ohio State with 243 and 143, respectively. With 100 assists, the First Team All-ALC selection also is one of just two Buckeyes to eclipse the century mark in their career.

Markwordt finished second on the team in both goals and assists with 43 and 29, respectively, for 72 total points. The Woodbine, Md., native had 12 multi-goal games, including back-to-back five-goal performances vs. Northwestern and Florida.

On the other end of the field, Annie Carruthers was tabbed the ALC Goalie of the Year after leading the conference throughout the regular season in save percentage (0.506) and saves per game (10.1), totals that placed her third and sixth in the NCAA, respectively in the two categories. The junior stopper also made a career-high 22 saves against Northwestern March 24, the second-most of any NCAA goalie in the 2010 season, and had at least 10 in eight games this year.

At the end of the season, Sue Stimmel, the only head coach in Buckeye lacrosse history, resigned from her post after 15 years.

Overall: 9-8 Conf: 1-4 Home: 5-3 Away: 4-5 Neut: 0-0

POSTSEASON NOTES

BUCKEYE BOUNTY - ALC STYLE

Annie Carruthers headlined the list of Buckeye award winners as the 2010 American Lacrosse Conference Goalie of the Year. Carruthers joined senior Kelly Haggerty as members of the All-ALC First Team, while sophomore Alayna Markwordt earned second-team recognition. Carruthers is the second ALC Goalie of the Year for the Buckeyes, joining Erin Forquer from the 2003 season. The program has had 29 total all-conference selections, including 17 on the first team.

RECORDS WATCH

With two assists vs. Vanderbilt April 12, senior Kelly Haggerty broke the all-time record for career points at Ohio State. The West Chester, Pa., native finished her career with 143 goals and 100 assists for 243 points, passing Kristen Slahor's 221 (82g, 139a) earned during the 2005-08 seasons. She also holds the all-time record for career goals at Ohio State with 143, tying the previous leader in that category - Megan Mirick (143, 1999-2003). With 100 assists, the First Team All-ALC selection also is one of just two Buckeyes to eclipse the century mark in their career.

ANNIE GET YOUR SAVE

Carruthers, the ALC Goalie of the Year, led the conference throughout the regular season in save percentage (0.506) and saves per game (10.1) and was ranked third and sixth in the NCAA, respectively in the two categories. The Columbus Academy product made a career-high 22 saves against Northwestern March 24, the second-most of any NCAA goalie in the 2010 season, and has had at least 10 in eight games this year. With 172 saves to her credit, Carruthers tallied the third-most all-time in a single season at Ohio State, trailing second-place Nicole Morris and her 174 (1997) by just two.

RANK AND FILE

After four-consecutive weeks in the IWLCA Top 20, the Buckeyes dropped out after their loss to Hopkins May 2. They had re-entered at No. 20 April 5 for the first time since the March 1 edition and had since moved up three spots. After being limited to receiving votes beginning March 8, Ohio State went 6-4 with its losses coming at the hands of then-No. 1 and undefeated Northwestern, No. 10 Vanderbilt, No. 18 Penn State and No. 12 Notre Dame before dropping out of the national rankings.

DYNAMIC DUO

Kelly Haggerty and Alayna Markwordt comprise one of the most successful scoring duos in NCAA lacrosse, combining for 150 points this season, the sixth-most among Division I scoring tandems entering the week of competition. Haggerty led the Buckeyes with 38 goals and 39 assists, while Markwordt was second with 43 goals and 29 assists.

MARGIN OF VICTORY

In games won, the Buckeyes outscored their opponents 157-69 - an 88-goal difference and an average of 9.8 goals per game. Their largest win this season came against Detroit last Sunday, a 21-4 victory. They previously had beaten Cincinnati 20-5.

DEFENSIVE DIVA

Maghan Beaudrault led the team with 25 caused turnovers this season - eight more than her closest teammate (Lindsey Gysin, 17). Her 1.47 caused turnovers per game ranked 48th in the NCAA and third in the ALC. She has had multi-CT games in four contests this season, including a career-high seven against Canisius April 5 in Buffalo, N.Y.

GONE STREAKING

Two Buckeye attackers hold point-scoring streaks of at least 20 games. Kelly Haggerty notched at least one goal or assist in each of her last 35 career games - the 14th-longest active streak in the country at the close of the season - while Alayna Markwordt posted points in 31-consecutive games.

BIG GAMES, SMALL SCREEN

Buckeye lacrosse made four appearances on national television this season, three on the Big Ten Network and one on ESPN. Ohio State made its debut on Big Ten Network with the Penn State game April 18 before making a second appearance vs. Notre Dame later that week and a third vs. the Nittany Lions in the ALC Tournament. The game against Johns Hopkins was on ESPN, the first for Ohio State on the ESPN family of networks.

DEPARTMENT OF ATHLETICS

The varsity program is respected as one of the most comprehensive in all of college athletics and is 36 sports strong – 16 for men, 17 for women and three coed. The department operates on a budget in excess of $100 million. Each year, Ohio State teams claim numerous Big Ten championships, compete in NCAA tournaments and vie for national titles while producing countless individual conference and national champions, All-America performers and scholar-athletes.

Ohio State's Department of Athletics is under the direction of Eugene Smith. Just the eighth athletics director in Ohio State history, Smith has developed a vision that will keep the Buckeyes among the nation's elite in the 21st century.

Ohio State is recognized across the country as a leader in collegiate athletics. More than 1,000 student-athletes participated in 2009-10.

With rich tradition as a foundation and with state-of-the-art facilities, such as Bill Davis Stadium, Value City Arena at the Jerome Schottenstein Center, Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, the Younkin Success Center and Ohio Stadium, the Buckeyes' outlook for the future appears even brighter than their glorious past.

WHAT IS A BUCKEYE?

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a light tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the buckeye tree. According to folklore, the Buckeye resembles the eye of a deer and carrying one brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

The first recorded use of the term Buckeye to refer to a resident of the area was in 1788, some 15 years before Ohio became a state. Col. Ebenezer Sproat, a 6-foot-4-inch man of large girth and swashbuckling mannerisms, led the legal delegation at the first court session of the Northwest Territory in Marietta. The Indians in attendance greeted him with shouts of "Hetuck, Hetuck" (the Indian word for buckeye), it is said because they were impressed by his stature and manner. He proudly carried the Buckeye nickname for the rest of his life and it gradually spread to his companions and other local settlers. By the 1830s, writers were commonly referring to locals as "Buckeyes."

COMMENCEMENT

Graduation day at The Ohio State University is one of the most gratifying moments a student-athlete can experience. Notables such as Bill Cosby, Bill Clinton, the late Christopher Reeve and President George W. Bush have given the commencement address at OSU.

At Ohio State, education extends beyond the classroom and the practice field. Many students enhance their academic and career experiences through the numerous co-op, internship, and more than 100 study abroad opportunities. Many other students get involved in innovative research projects that have a lasting and direct impact on the community. What are you into? Chances are, one of Ohio State's 500 student organizations is right up your alley.

An athletic academic counselor is assigned to each team to provide individualized attention to student-athletes. Additionally, students are provided subject tutors, study tables and study skills instruction as well as access to a computer lab and printer to help reach academic goals.

Ohio State is serious about the role it plays in the lives of its student-athletes and for that reason has systematically designed programs to meet their needs. Backed by one of the largest alumni associations in the nation, an OSU degree will be their ticket to career opportunities around the world

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS

Ohio State student-athletes are encouraged to become involved in more than just athletics. One of the most innovative and noteworthy initiatives fueling this effort is the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success). To serve our diverse population we follow the five programming commitments of the NCAA model of CHAMPS/Life Skills: academics * athletics * personal development * career development * community service

ACADEMIC & ATHLETIC COMMITMENTS

OHIO STATE TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEYE

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloopy).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

TBDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 19 of the last 21 years. The squad was 15th at the 2008 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill, With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold. The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show, How firm thy friendship O-HI-O.

MAKING GREAT PLAYERS ELITE ATHLETES

SPEED, POWER, STRENGTH

Ohio State student-athletes benefit from a comprehensive and individualized strength and conditioning program designed to ensure the highest possible level of physical readiness.

Anthony Glass, director of athletics strength and conditioning for Olympic sports, and staff provide instruction specific to the individual, both in and out of season, and in collaboration with the Ohio State training and medical staffs.

Glass and his staff challenge the Buckeye contingency even further in the weight room in the areas of leadership, work ethic, attitude and ability with an annual Buckeye Power Club Award. Athletes from each varsity team who exemplify the highest levels of achievement are honored at the end of each school year with the award and in turn become eligible for National Strength and Conditioning Association All-America honors.

FIRST CLASS PHYSICIANS

Dr. Chris Kaeding is the head team physician for the Ohio State Department of Athletics and also serves as co-director of the OSU Sports Medicine Center. Dr. Kaeding oversees a staff of the finest sports medicine physicians, surgeons, dentists and counselors who monitor the overall well-being of each student-athlete on a year-round basis.

Buckeye student-athletes benefit from having these dedicated students assisting the staff. An athletic training student is assigned to each team, allowing someone from the athletic training staff to be present at every practice and game. Additionally, the athletic training staff hosts several seminars and workshops covering a variety athletic training and sports medicine topics throughout the year.

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS GENE SMITH

Gene Smith is in his fifth year as director of athletics at The Ohio State University. He was named to his current position on March 5, 2005. On March 17, 2008, Gordon Gee, president of The Ohio State University, promoted Smith to university assistant vice president/director of athletics and he has since been named associate vice president/director of athletics.

Smith is the eighth person to hold the athletics director position at Ohio State and the first African-American to do so. He previously served as director of athletics at Arizona State, Iowa State, and Eastern Michigan Universities, and is entering his 24th year in the role.

At Ohio State, the 53-year old Smith oversees one of the nation's largest and most successful college athletic programs. The Buckeyes have 36 fully-funded varsity sports and more than 1,000 student-athletes. The department of athletics is completely self supporting and receives no university funds, tax dollars or student fees. In fiscal year 2008-09, the department transferred nearly $26 million in assessments to the university, including more than $13 million in grant-in-aid reimbursement. In Smith's first three years at Ohio State, the department of athletics finished in the black financially and increased its reserve fund.

Upon arriving at Ohio State, Smith quickly established himself as a respected and thoughtful leader, both within the university and the community. In the spring of 2007, he unveiled a five-year strategic plan, reflecting the department's goals and values. The strategic planning process, inclusive of the entire department, emphasized the development of the total student-athlete.

Under Smith's leadership, The Ohio State Department of Athletics was honored in the spring of 2008 with the Diversity in Athletics Award in the category of Overall Excellence in Diversity. Smith accepted the honor at the 43rd annual National Association of College Directors of Athletics Convention in Dallas.

Shortly after Ohio State was honored as a department for its dedication to diversity, Smith was individually recognized for his contribution to the sport of football.

The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame, announced in June of 2008 the recipients of the NFF's 2008 Major Awards. Smith was honored officially Dec. 9, 2008 in New York with the John L. Toner Award. Presented annually, the Toner Award is given to a director of athletics who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.

Smith was recently appointed to the Governing Board of Trustees of the Lincoln Theatre Association. He was named to the position by the Franklin County (Ohio) Board of Commissioners. It is a three-year appointment effective March 10, 2009.

Nationally, Smith is involved with USA Basketball as a member of the Finance & Audit Committee. That appointment was made March 25, 2009. The Finance & Audit Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board regarding the organization's financial investments, reviewing independent auditors for USA Basketball and, if necessary, oversight, implementation and compliance with the USA Basketball Code of Ethics.

Smith has an exemplary record of national leadership and service. In 2007, he served as president of the Division 1-A Athletic Directors Association. He is entering his third year on the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Committee and was appointed chair of the committee for the 2010-11 academic year, with his term as chair beginning Sept. 1, 2010. Smith was recently named to the newly created Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, a 27-member panel charged with developing strategies to enhance academic performance and graduation rates in Division I men's basketball.

Smith is past president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and was that organization's first African-American president. He also has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Committee on Infractions, the NCAA Executive Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the President's Commission Liaison Committee, the NCAA Baseball Academic Enhancement Task Force, and the National Football Foundation Honors Court, among others.

In recognition of his service, Smith was named by Black Enterprise Magazine as one of the "50 Most Powerful African American in College Sports." In 2007, he was named to NACDA's inaugural "Legends Class," and was also named Athletic Administrator of the Year by the Black Coaches Association (BCA). In 2002-03, he received NACDA's AD of the Year honors for the Division 1-A West Region.

Smith grew up in Cleveland, Ohio, and attended the University of Notre Dame on a football scholarship. He played four years of football as a defensive end for the Irish and was a member of the 1973 Associated Press national championship team. Smith received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Notre Dame in 1977. Following graduation, he joined the Notre Dame coaching staff under Dan Devine and remained in that capacity until 1981. The 1977 Notre Dame team captured the undisputed national championship.

Smith left Notre Dame following the 1981 season to accept a marketing position with IBM. He returned to college athletics in April of 1983 as assistant athletics director at Eastern Michigan University. In 1985, he was appointed as interim director of athletics at Eastern, a position he held until 1986 when he became the director on a full-time basis.

In 1993, Smith was named director of athletics at Iowa State University. He moved to Arizona State as director of athletics in 2000.

As a former college athlete and coach, Smith is passionate about the well being of student-athletes. "We want to create an environment for our student-athletes to be successful academically, athletically and socially," he says. "The student-athlete experience provides teachable moments that prepare young women and men for success in life."

Smith is active in the Columbus community and is a member of the board of the YMCA of Central Ohio. He also is active with the Bell Center for African American males on Ohio State's campus.

Gene and his wife, Sheila, have four children: Matt, Nicole, Lindsey and Summer, and two grandchildren: Marshall and Steele. Sheila, a 1976 Canadian Olympian in basketball, holds a doctorate in higher education administration and is an associate vice president for development at Ohio State.

NCAA COMPLIANCE REGULATIONS

The Ohio State University Athletics Compliance Office is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates everyone about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Big Ten, and institutional rules. We strive to create a "compliance conscience" within the university and throughout the community.

The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics and furthers the mission of The Ohio State University. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At Ohio State, the athletics compliance office works within the department of athletics and the university to ensure Ohio State's compliance with all applicable rules. In doing so, the compliance office is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospects, student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with these rules. These systems are designed to monitor rules pertaining to recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards, extra benefits, ethical conduct, amateurism, agents, employment, occasional meals and the playing and practice seasons for each sport; and
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules to the appropriate governing authority.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports Ohio State athletics;
- Made any financial contributions to any area of Ohio State;
- Made any annual or lifetime membership commitment to a booster organization;
- Been involved with the recruitment of a prospect;
- Provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete or their relatives or friends;
- Been involved in promoting Ohio State's athletic program;
- Provided or helped to arrange employment for student-athletes;
- Participated in a group loosely associated with the athletics department (e.g., "Friends Of" group);
- Been a season ticket holder.

ONCE A BOOSTER ... ALWAYS A BOOSTER.

According to the NCAA, once an individual has been identified as a booster, he or she retains this identity forever.

If you do not meet the definition of a booster, you can still be classified as a booster if you provide benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends and any of the following statements are true.

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete became a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety because of his or her athletic ability or reputation; or
- The pattern of giving increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a skilled athlete.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

A recruiting inducement or extra benefit is any special arrangement by an Ohio State University employee or booster to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible extra benefits include but are not limited to:

- cash or any type of gifts;
- loans or cosigning of loans;
- vehicle or the use of a vehicle;
- payment for or arrangement of transportation costs;
- free or reduced cost goods or services;
- free or reduced cost housing;
- concert or sporting event tickets; or
- any item not expressly permitted under NCAA rules

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

Ohio State is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends, Ohio State may be subject to penalties, even if the student-athlete has completed his or her eligibility. The prospect or student-athlete who accepts an impermissible benefit jeopardizes his or her eligibility for intercollegiate competition. A booster who provides an impermissible benefit may be disassociated from the university's athletics program. Disassociation results in a loss of all benefits or privileges offered by the department of athletics and may involve other penalties as appropriate.

GOT QUESTIONS? ASK COMPLIANCE.

The provided information is a brief overview of compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective and current student-athletes. It is not an exhaustive discussion. If you have any questions about any NCAA, Big Ten or institutional rules, please contact the Athletic Compliance Office at (614) 292-2681 or via email at compliance@buckeyes.ath.ohio-state.edu.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

JAMES E. DELANY Big Ten Conference Commissioner

Only the Big Ten's fifth commissioner since its founding in 1896, James E. Delany enters his 21st year in that role. He has led the Big Ten through significant periods of change and growth that have helped the conference maintain its preeminent position as one of the nation's leaders in providing quality athletic and academic experiences for young people.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

- Big Ten universities provide approximately $100 million in direct financial aid to more than 8,500 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 championships, 12 for men and 13 for women.
- Conference institutions sponsor broad-based athletic programs with more than 270 teams. Other than the Ivy League, the Big Ten has the most broad-based athletic programs in the United States.

TOP ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

- Big Ten universities are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely composed of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

MORE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

- The Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, the Big Ten Network and CBS College Sports Network provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever.
- In 2006, the Big Ten created the first national conference-owned television network devoted to the athletic and academic programs of a single conference. The Big Ten Network launched on Aug. 30, 2007, and became the first new network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million homes in its first 30 days. The Big Ten Network is now available to more than 70 million homes nationally through agreements with more than 250 cable/satellite affiliates and appears in 23 of the top 25 national media markets.
- Since the current media agreements began in 2007-08, every home football and men's basketball game has been produced while women's basketball has received more coverage than any other conference.
- The Big Ten's new media agreements have resulted in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally on an annual basis, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

NATION'S BEST FANS

- Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with more than 8.7 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2008-09 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.
- Over the last 31 seasons, the conference has ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in football, men's basketball and wrestling attendance. For the past 17 seasons, women's basketball has been ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in attendance.
- Big Ten institutions have more than 4.2 million living alumni and over 300,000 undergraduate students attending their universities.

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

- During the 2008-09 season, the Big Ten claimed five team national championships, including titles for Iowa wrestling, Penn State fencing and women's volleyball, Northwestern lacrosse and Wisconsin women's ice hockey. In addition, Big Ten teams finished as the national runners-up in men's basketball and men's gymnastics.
- Big Ten teams have claimed at least three national titles in nine of the last 10 seasons (1999-2000 through 2008-09). Over the last decade, the Big Ten has produced team national crowns in the sports of basketball, cross country, fencing, field hockey, football, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball, synchronized swimming, tennis, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERSHIP IN GENDER EQUITY

- Since 1992, the Big Ten has shown a strong commitment to increasing opportunities for women in sports and exposure of women's athletics by establishing a multi-phased gender equity program. In that time, the Big Ten has created in excess of 2,000 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 28 new women's teams, while expanding the number of women's championships to 13 by adding field hockey, soccer and rowing.
- As part of the gender equity action plan, the Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male/female participation goals for student-athletes in 1992. The Big Ten initiated a five-year plan for conference members to commit to a 60 percent/40 percent male-to-female student-athlete participation ratio. This was achieved as a conference by 1997 and 2000 was the first year that all institutions individually met this goal. As part of its commitment to gender equity, the Council of Presidents/Chancellors annually monitors this policy. During the 2007-08 year, all institutions were in compliance and the conference averaged a 52/48 male-to-female participation ratio.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- In 1989, the Big Ten created a community outreach program—SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday), which partners the conference with two Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performances. What began with one school, two grade levels and five classrooms has grown in its 20th year to include grades kindergarten through eighth, encompassing all classes and students at Melody School and Louis Armstrong School.
- Following the national tragedy on Sept. 11, 2001, the Big Ten, through its intercollegiate athletic department revenues, pledged a $1 million scholarship contribution to assist the families of those affected by the terrorist attacks. The conference's donation is called the "Big Ten 9-11 Scholarship Fund", and the $1 million contribution will be drawn from conference reserves which are generated as a result of football and men's basketball participation in NCAA, bowl and regular-season television opportunities.
- The Big Ten has established numerous community programs surrounding the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, including the Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award Scholarship, the Big Ten Career Fair, the Hoops Day 5K and a partnership with the Pink Ribbon Connection, a local breast cancer organization.

"Eleven schools, 252 varsity teams, one great network to cover it all. Welcome to the Big Ten Network, your ultimate source for Big Ten sports, featuring the games, passion and tradition of the nation's foremost athletic conference." – Dave Revsine, August 30, 2007

The Big Ten Network is dedicated to covering the Big Ten Conference and its 11 member institutions. The Big Ten Network provides unprecedented access to an extensive schedule of conference sports events and shows; original programs in academics, the arts and sciences; campus activities; and associated personalities. Sports programming includes live coverage of more events than ever before, along with news, highlights and analysis, all complemented by hours of university-produced campus programming. The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks. The Big Ten Network reaches a national audience through distribution arrangements with approximately 240 cable and satellite companies.
